Together, Let's Build a World of Empowered Women and Children

At Daughters of Africare Kenya, we empower teenage mothers, widows, and vulnerable children through education, support, and opportunity. Together with our partners and communities, we're building a future where women and children can thrive with dignity and purpose.

Introduction

Help To Give Hope.

Your support lights the path for vulnerable women and children—turning struggles into strength, and despair into opportunity. Together, we bring hope to life.

Help For Happiness.

Happiness grows where compassion lives. With every act of care, we create moments of joy that echo through families, communities, and generations.
